

2010-2011 Financial Aid Application

Instructions: All students applying for financial aid must complete and submit this application to the Office of Financial Aid. You can also complete the application online at bethel.edu/finaid/cas.

Do you want to apply for educational loans? Yes No

Do you want to apply for need-based grants, such as the Bethel Grant? Yes No

- Answering yes to either question allows us to consider you for all types of financial aid. In addition, you must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) online at www.fafsa.gov as soon as 2009 federal income taxes are completed. (Bethel's FAFSA code is 002338.)
- The U.S. Department of Education selects 30 percent of FAFSA filers for verification. The financial aid office will contact you if you are selected for verification.
- Students and their parents or spouse who report estimated income on their FAFSA must submit a Verification Worksheet and signed copies of federal income taxes with W-2 forms. Before submitting your FAFSA with estimated income, you should contact the financial aid office.

PART 5. Appeal Information Optional section for students completing a FAFSA

Sometimes students and/or families face unusual financial conditions or experience a reduction in income after 2009. In these instances, Bethel is able to reconsider a student's need and her/his aid package based on an appeal. The full appeal form can be found at bethel.edu/finaid/appeal. A shortened version of our appeal form with the most common appeals is contained below. To appeal any of the items below, please check the box for the circumstance you wish to appeal and provide the appropriate information either in Part 6 or on an additional sheet. Remember to submit all supporting documentation.

Unusual medical expenses: Choose either calendar year 2009 or 2010. If 2009, document expenses by reporting the amount from Line 1, Schedule A of your 2009 federal tax return. For 2010, report money you paid out of pocket (not reimbursed by insurance or by employer's pre-tax cafeteria plan) for doctor, hospital, medication, etc. Include only amount paid within that year. Please include supporting documentation.

Parent's tuition: Will one or both of your parents be in college in 2010-2011? Yes No If yes, answer the following:
 Parent's tuition: $ _____ Parent's grants/scholarships: $ _____ Employer's tuition reimbursement: $ _____
