CCCU Employee Scholarship

For Leadership in Higher Education Ed.D. Students

In acknowledgement of the important work performed by Christian higher education institutions and to support this work through the development of future leaders, Bethel University has implemented the CCCU Employee Scholarship.

Through the Bethel CCCU Employee Scholarship, approved degree-seeking employees of CCCU schools may receive $400 per semester (up to $1,200 year) when enrolled at least half time each term. Three credits is considered half time for Ed.D. students.

Requirements:

Recipients must:

1. Be admitted as a degree-seeking Bethel student into the Leadership in Higher Education Ed.D. program.
2. Complete the scholarship application (see reverse) and submit it to the Bethel University Financial Aid Office prior to the start of your first class.
3. Enroll at least half time per term.
4. Maintain satisfactory academic progress toward your degree (see student handbook).
5. Maintain employment at a CCCU school.
6. Reapply each year.

Frequently Asked Questions:

How long will this scholarship be available to me? Bethel University Partner Scholarship will be offered up to the completion of your courses. Students must apply annually.

If I decide to take fewer credits, do I lose my scholarship? You will not receive the scholarship during the semesters you are enrolled less than half time. However, the scholarship will resume once your enrollment status is at least half time, provided a current CCCU Scholarship form is on file.

May I seek additional resources to pay for my schooling? Yes, you may be eligible for loans. Additional information can be found at bethel.edu/financial-aid.
