

WHY CHOOSE BETHEL UNIVERSITY FOR MASTER OF ARTS IN K-12 EDUCATION?

Feedback from anonymous survey respondents, who have completed the Master of Arts in K-12 Education at Bethel University, report that...

“Each class had such valuable information presented that I was able to apply immediately to my teaching.”

“I enjoyed having choices and a way to customize my learning experience.”

“I loved the fact that I could interact with peers from across the world in my specialty.”

Following program completion, our graduates rate their satisfaction with program quality, confidence in increased expertise, and future plans through completion of the Modified Bush Exit Survey. The feedback from our students is used to provide direction for program development and improvement and to ensure the integrity and accuracy of our reported student success.

Bethel University prepares 21st educational professionals who:

- Ensure student engagement through the design of curriculum from a variety of perspectives.
- acknowledge and target the needs of culturally and ethnically diverse students.
- plan differentiated instruction for a variety of learning needs.

Bush Exit Survey Responses from Program Completers (on a rating scale of 1 – 4)
2013-2014
	N	Mean	SD
I am able to design activities where students engage with subject matter from a variety of perspectives.	13	3.77	.58
I understand the needs of students from various socioeconomic backgrounds.	13	3.69	.47
I am able to plan differentiated instruction for a variety of learning needs.	13	3.69	.47
I would recommend my program to other teachers.	13	3.62	.63

97% of teacher candidates report that they would recommend this program to other teachers.*

Bethel University students in the Master of Arts K-12 Education program finish what they start.

- 100% of those seeking a Master’s degree in K-12 Education, successfully completed their programs within the suggested timeline (data from 2014-2015)*

Note: Students complete 32 credits within 24 to 36 months.*