

Program Goals Our program will promote excellence in:	Tools and Benchmarks	Class of 2022 Data
Competence. Our program will provide exceptional training in the knowledge and skills necessary for entry-level medical practice.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Program graduates will have an overall pass rate above the national average each year ● All graduating students will pass each program competency on the PA program’s summative examination with an 80% or higher 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The Class of 2022 overall pass rate of 97% surpassed the 2022 national pass rate of 92% for first-time test takers ● All students in the class of 2022 passed each competency on the summative examination with an 80% or higher
Compassion. Our program will prepare graduates to provide patient-centered, ethical, and compassionate care.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● All graduating students will score 80% or higher on patient-centered care summative exam ● All students will successfully pass PHAS634 Christian Health Care & Applied Medical Ethics ● Clinical preceptors will agree that clinical students demonstrated an ability to provide patient-centered, ethical, and compassionate care 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● All students in the class of 2022 scored 80% or higher on patient-centered care summative exam ● All students in the class of 2022 successfully passed PHAS634 Christian Health Care & Applied Medical Ethics ● Based upon preceptor ratings of the class of 2022, students received an average patient rapport rating of 97% indicating students listen and communicate concern while instilling confidence in his/her abilities
Confidence. Our program will prepare servant leaders who practice with integrity, following the example of Jesus.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● 95% of graduating students will agree that the program was effective at developing leadership skills ● 95% of graduating students will agree that the program was effective at developing PAs who will serve with integrity ● Clinical preceptors will agree or strongly agree that clinical students demonstrated integrity within work and relationships in the clinical setting 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● All surveyed students in the class of 2022 agreed that the program was effective at developing leadership skills ● All surveyed students in the class of 2022 agreed that the program was effective at developing PAs who will serve with integrity ● Based upon preceptor ratings of the class of 2022, students received an average work habits rating of 94% and an average rating of professional relationships of 97%
Culture. Our program will celebrate the diversity of God’s kingdom by supporting students with an inclusive culture and preparing them to provide culturally humble care.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● All graduating students will agree that they felt supported by faculty during their time in the program ● All students will complete scholarly work related to health equity, social justice, and/or care for underserved populations in medicine 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● All surveyed students in the class of 2022 agreed that the program was supportive of individual student needs and provided a safe and effective learning environment ● All students successfully completed scholarly work related to health equity, social justice, and/or care for underserved populations