

Program Goals	Tools and Benchmarks	Class of 2021 Data
Our program will promote excellence in:
Competence. Our program will provide exceptional training in the knowledge and skills necessary for entry-level medical practice.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Program graduates will have an overall pass rate above the national average each year</li> <li>● All graduating students will pass each program competency on the PA program’s summative examination with an 80% or higher</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● The class of 2021 overall pass rate of 97% surpassed the 2021 national pass rate of 96%.</li> <li>● All students in the class of 2021 passed each competency on the summative examination with an 80% or higher.</li> </ul>
Compassion. Our program will prepare graduates to provide patient-centered, ethical, and compassionate care.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● All graduating students will score 80% or higher on patient-centered care summative exam</li> <li>● All students will successfully pass PHAS634 Christian Health Care &amp; Applied Medical Ethics</li> <li>● Clinical preceptors will agree that clinical students demonstrated an ability to provide patient-centered, ethical, and compassionate care</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● All students in the class of 2021 scored 80% or higher on patient-centered care summative exam.</li> <li>● All students in the class of 2021 successfully passed PHAS634 Christian Health Care &amp; Applied Medical Ethics</li> <li>● Based upon preceptor ratings of the class of 2021, students received an average patient rapport rating of 97% indicating students listen and communicate concern while instilling confidence in his/her abilities.</li> </ul>
Confidence. Our program will prepare servant leaders who practice with integrity, following the example of Jesus.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● 95% of graduating students will agree that the program was effective at developing leadership skills</li> <li>● 95% of graduating students will agree that the program was effective at developing PAs who will serve with integrity</li> <li>● Clinical preceptors will agree or strongly agree that clinical students demonstrated integrity within work and relationships in the clinical setting</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● All surveyed students in the class of 2021 agreed that the program was effective at developing leadership skills</li> <li>● All surveyed students in the class of 2021 agreed that the program was effective at developing PAs who will serve with integrity</li> <li>● Based upon preceptor ratings of the class of 2021, students received an average work habits rating of 96% and an average professional relationships rating of 96%.</li> </ul>
Culture. Our program will celebrate the diversity of God’s kingdom by supporting students with an inclusive culture and preparing them to provide culturally humble care.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● All graduating students will agree that they felt supported by faculty during their time in the program</li> <li>● All students will complete scholarly work related to health equity and social justice in medicine</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● All surveyed students in the class of 2021 agreed that the program was supportive of individual student needs and provided a safe and effective learning environment</li> <li>● The following research and community service projects were completed by the class of 2021 in meeting this goal: Homelessness and diabetes: a review to provide education to homeless individuals and organizations, Assessment of</li> </ul> medical experiences of hearing guardians with deaf or hard of hearing children in the twin cities, Diagnosing dermatological conditions in the non-Caucasian population, Implementing a health and wellness program for low income children and their families: a community outreach program.

--	--	---