PORTFOLIO REQUIREMENTS

Contractual Non-Instructional Assignments (when applicable)

A contractual non-instructional assignment is defined as any task or set of tasks outside the classroom setting carried as part of a faculty member's regular full time appointment. Faculty who serve in appointments that have significant non-instructional components (including, for example, counselors, department chairs, athletic trainers, faculty who have administrative responsibilities in the AESC office, and other administrative roles) are asked for a self-evaluation of their performance in these roles. If applicable, this self-assessment should include a description of activities and reflection on how the candidate's non-instructional assignments contribute positively to the Bethel community.

II. Supporting Documentation

Documentation should relate to the rank to which a candidate is applying.

A. Teaching

Select two different courses, (at different levels if possible), taught during prior two years and submit the following:

- Syllabi
- Samples of student assignments (with student names and any identifying information redacted) with instructor comments or feedback, which will be reviewed for clear linkage to course objectives and adequate response to evaluate or prompt growth.

Candidates should view these materials as a “data bank” with an eye toward using them in the self-assessment to demonstrate effective teaching.

B. Contractual Non-Instructional Assignments (if applicable)

- A description of one's workload in this area
- Supervisory evaluations
- Other materials deemed appropriate may be submitted at the discretion of the faculty member

C. Scholarship

- Provide 2-4 representative examples of your most meaningful scholarly activities. If it is a large project or book you can share an excerpt.

D. Service

- List of University service activities within the past five years; possible examples include:
  - Mentoring of students

PORTFOLIO REQUIREMENTS

- University-wide committees (dates of service; chair or member)
- Faculty Committee (dates of service, chair or member)
- Departmental Committee (dates of service, chair or member)
- Adviser for student organization or other group
- Participation in recruitment
- Public relations activity
- List community service activities during past five years. Documentation of contributions to the external community may include letters of support or other evaluation methods.

III. Updated Curriculum Vitae

The CV should include education, degrees and years of award, work experience previous to Bethel and years, and Bethel experience if more than one position has been held. Entries on your curriculum vita must include dates and status of projects (e.g. in progress, submitted for publication, etc.)

A. Teaching

List numbers and names of courses taught.

B. Scholarship

Include status of work submitted, but not yet published or presented, noting whether it has been accepted and waiting publication or presentation. Include anticipated publication/presentation date(s).

C. Service

Include relevant service.

IV. For Promotion to Full Professor: Faith Integration Essay (not to exceed 3,000 to 3,500 words)

The Faith Integration essay offers the faculty member an opportunity to describe how they bring the perspective of a Christian worldview to bear on teaching and scholarship. While the document should certainly include a personal voice, it should not be limited to discussion of one's personal faith commitments but should focus on linking those commitments to one's academic work within a scholarly context. The essay may include:

1. Discussion of biblical values or perspectives affecting one's approach to the discipline.
2. Discussion of discipline-related assumptions or perspectives which enrich one's

- approach to the Christian life.
3. Discussion of areas of controversy or conflict between the Christian faith and the academic discipline, critical issues in the discipline, and the faculty member's approach to these areas.
  4. Distinctive problems and opportunities the faculty member has experienced as a Christian pursuing one's professional activities.
  5. Discussion of the faculty member's approach to teaching as a Christian scholar at a Christian university.

The above listed topics are meant to stimulate one's thinking and encourage significant reflection on how one understands his or her calling as a Christian scholar; how one understands one's disciplinary perspective and its consonance or dissonance with Christian teaching; and how one brings to bear faith perspectives when tensions arise. It is not expected that all five topics will be addressed in the essay; however, the discussion should be an in-depth, scholarly analysis. It is expected that this essay will reflect the ongoing thinking by the faculty member, and should reflect an increasing maturity in one's discipline and faith.

The reading audience for this paper is best considered to be other faculty members at Bethel, who may not be knowledgeable in the specialized concepts or vocabulary of other disciplines. The paper will be read by peers, University administrators and, possibly, by the Board of Trustees. The quality of this paper should be such that it would be a suitable draft for submission to a scholarly publication.
