

Bethel Business & Economics Department

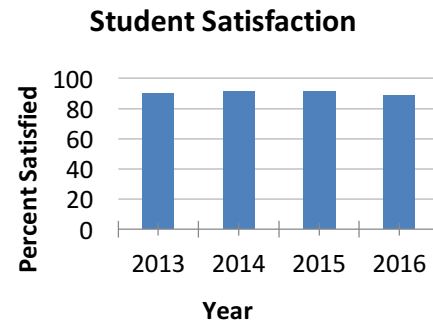

College of Arts & Sciences

Program Results — September 5, 2017

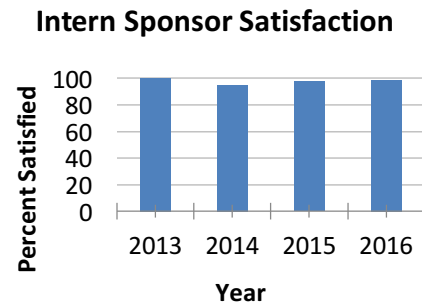

Alumni reported nearly 100 percent employment (or volunteer service/continuing education) one year after graduating from Bethel business programs over a four year period (Source: Bethel Alumni Survey).

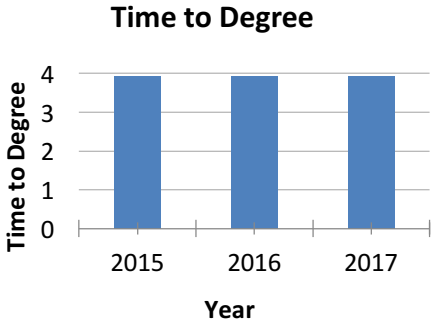

Students reported nearly 90 percent overall satisfaction with educational experiences within their business major over a four year period (Source: Bethel Campus Life Survey).

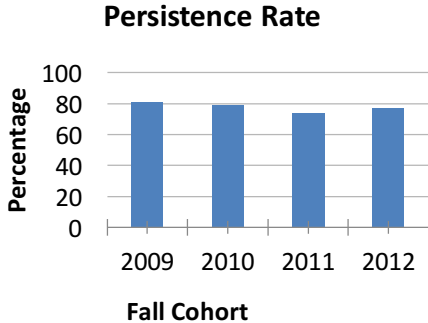

Internship sponsors reported nearly 100 percent satisfaction with student interns over a four year period (Source: Bethel Internship Survey).

Graduates of business programs complete their degree programs on average within four years.

Business student persistence rate is approaching 80 percent. Persistence is defined as completing a degree program or being still enrolled at Bethel after eight semesters of study.

Bethel seniors' aggregate score on the Business Major Field Test, a comprehensive test of critical business knowledge, is consistently above the 65% percentile when compared with other colleges and universities.

