

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

International students are responsible for all educational and personal expenses for the duration of their F-1 status at Bethel University. Before we can issue a I-20, Bethel University is required by the United States government to maintain records that demonstrate that you have at least the funds necessary to cover your tuition, fees, and living expenses for your first year of study (12 months). Applicants are also required to submit projected support for each year beyond the first year of study at Bethel. If you attend summer session and/or bring your spouse or other dependents with you to the United States, you must also demonstrate that you have the funds to cover those costs.
